MORE AND MORE HANDSOME.

The Southern's New Depot Here One of the Finest.

As work on the Southern's new depot progresses, new points of elegance and convenience are daily brought to light. The work on the outside of the structure is about, if not quite, completed, and the force has been shifted to the inside where the the work is tedious and necessarily slow. The interior finishing will be entirely of oak, the arrangement of which will go to make the handsomest reception rooms in North Carolina. Not the least attractive place in the building will be the ticket office, in the south side, between the two reception rooms. Ticket Agent Graham, will have quarters to be proud of, and the Southern Railway Company and the City of Flowers may well congratulate each other when the building is completed.

WOULDN'T SELL HIM.

Dispensary Man Must Wait For The Dispensary.

Not all the men in Greensboro who like a drink occasionally are anti-dispensaryites. A man was enquiring around legal circles this morning to know what could be done with a barkeeper who refused to sell him a drink. He says he is a dispensary advocate and that he voted for that measure in the primary. He says, furthermore, that he walked into a barroom this morning and ordered a drink and was refused.

We are not furnished with any evidence that the man is a habitual drunkard and if he is we were not aware that the barkeepers had adopted the provisions of the dispensary system. Was he refused as a rebuke for voting for the dispensary? That's the right lick. Keep it up.

The Concession Revoked.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Bombay, Feb. 21—The Sultan has revoked the concession of a coaling station for the French under threat of the British admiral to bombard the forts. The Sultan has posted a proclamation withdrawing the concession. The French consul has formally protested.

As to Ewart—and Smallpox.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, Feb. 21—Senator Mason says that a poll of the senate shows a majority in favor of Ewart's confirmation. The district commissioners will ask congress to appropriate fifty thousand dollars to guard against the spread of smallpox.

SHALL WE BE OVERRIDDEN?

Tha People of Greensboro Spoke Again Last Night.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

A Large Attendance—Resolutions Protesting Against Caucus Interference Were Adopted.

Every man to his oar! Shall Greensboro and Greensboro affairs be controlled in accordance with the will of a majority of her people? That was the question which warmed the hearts and swayed the minds of the court house full of people who met last night. Twice before the white people of this city have shown that they are in earnest about the dispensary movement. They have proven to our representatives at Raleigh that they believe it to be to the best interest of our city that a dispensary be established here. Now the fight has gone beyond this.

As we said yesterday, the opposition, whipped at every point at home (the only place where such battles can justly be fought), have gone down to Raleigh and through a non-resident, aided by hired attorneys, is making an effort to bring democratic caucus action to bear to thwart the will of this people. Acting on this point the following preamble and resolutions were read and adopted unanimously by a rising vote with much enthusiasm:

PREAMBLE:

The will of the white voters of Greensboro regarding the dispensary has been expressed in petitions to the legislature of North Carolina in the ratio of seven to one against. The opposition claimed that petitions mean nothing and that a majority of the people were opposed to the dispensary and in order to determine this question, our senator and representatives called a primary of white voters, which resulted in a vote of 531 for the dispensary and 2 against. Our senator and representatives from Guilford have agreed to pass the dispensary bill, and will do all in their power to accomplish this. We have positive information that there is a movement on at Raleigh to cut off further dispensary legislation by a caucus resolution, and we believe that this movement has orignated with the opponents of the Greensboro dispensary, and has been strengthened and supported by the erroneous and unfounded claim which has been sedulously circulated at Raleigh by the opposition, namely, that the passage of the Greensboro dispensary bill will injure the cause of democracy in Guilford county.

Now therefore be it resolved:

1. That we have full confidence in the integrity and sincerity of our senator and representatives, and that we have the utmost faith in the wisdom and honesty of that honorable and notable body of men now assembled in the legislative halls in Raleigh, and that the purpose of these resolutions is to correct false impressions which have been made, to correctly inform the legislature as to local conditions and to prevent if possible a piece of legislative injustice and a grievous political blunder.

2. That the will of the people has been voiced with much emphasis and unanimity that the opposition has been conducted in a manner so arbitrary and so distasteful to the public, and much is the determination of the people of Greensboro not to be overridden and thwarted by a trifling minority, that it is wrong, unwise, and will be bad politics, for the democratic caucus to take any action which will result in the defeat of a measure which our people have demanded and which our senator and representatives desire.

3. That Guilford county is a strong temperance county, that the temperance people gave valiant assistance to the party and were important factors in its unprecedented victory in the last election, and that to offend this temperance sentiment by an act of flagrant injustice will be hurtful in the extreme to the cause of democracy in Guilford county.

4. That one hundred true men are appointed by this meeting to go to Raleigh on Wednesday next and secure the legislation which the people of Greensboro have asked for and assist our representatives in the fight for this measure.

5. That these resolutions be sent for publication to the newspapers in Greensboro, the Charlotte Observer, the News and Observer and Morning Post.

During the meeting stirring speeches were made by several gentlemen, among them A. M. Scales, Chas. H. Ireland, Sam Browne, Rev. J. D. Miller and R. W. Brooks. At the close of the meeting sixty-three men volunteered to go to Raleigh on tomorrow to urge the passage of the dispensary bill.

THEY ARE THINKING HARD.

A Problem Placed Before Congressmen—Washington News.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Feb. 21—While there is great fear expressed lest the river and harbor bill may be defeated in the house of representatives on account of the addition of the Nicaraguan canal amendment, there is no reason to doubt but that the bill, as reported from the commerce committee is adroitly framed and will carry large support. One representative from the south who is opposed to the construction of the canal said that the bill, aside from the Nicaraguan canal amendment will command as large support in the house as did the original house bill. Many of the senators and representatives who are opposed to the Nicaraguan canal, are even now hesitating about voting against the bill, because of the many important items which are of real interest to their constituents. This is particularly true of southern congressmen. Almost every southern state, including Florida, Texas, Georgia, Mississippi, North and South Carolina and Virginia, have important items in the bill which were they to be defeated would be a grievous disappointment. Even Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, who so stoutly opposed the Morgan bill for the construction of the canal, is said to be doubtful about voting against the river and harbor bill. Senator Pasco too, although he voted against the addition of the amendment in the commerce committee, stated yesterday that he would give the bill in the senate his support.

It is said that as a matter of precaution the friends of the Nicaraguan canal bill will also place the amendment on the Sundry civil appropriation bill. The opposition to the canal in the house may defeat the river and harbor bill, but as the defeat of the sundry civil appropriation bill would necessitate an extra session of congress, besides involving the government in much difficulty, the canal as a rider to the latter bill will stand a much better chance of going through.

It is rumored that the president has decided to appoint Mr. Shelby, of Alabama, to the new judgeship recently established in the south for the states of Florida, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Texas. The Georgia representatives and senators, however, have not heard anything definitely from the president to indicate that his mind is thus made up, and they are still working for the appointment of ex-Mayor Glenn, of Atlanta. Yesterday Representative Davis, of Florida, was at the white house, and saw the president for the purpose of urging the appointment of ex-Representative Bisbee, of Florida, but he did not receive much encouragement. The president told Mr. Davis that he had decided to make the appointment from either Alabama or Georgia. This statement from the president would indicate that his mind is not clearly made up at present. It is thought by both Georgia and Alabama congressmen that the appointment will go to the senate during the present week, and that confirmation will follow promptly. All of the candidates who have been mentioned for the honor are excellent men, and will have no opposition in the senate for confirmation.

The nomination of Judge Ewart is still attracting the attention of North Carolina senators and politicians. It is stated that a careful poll of the senate does not indicate where Ewart is going to receive enough votes to confirm him, but that it indicates his defeat by a small margin. Senator Pritchard stated yesterday that the vote would probably not be reached for several days yet.

Senators Daniel and Martin, of Virginia, are both opposed to the bill for the reorganization of the army in its present shape, and voted against taking the bill up yesterday. Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, voted to take up the bill, and Senator Butler in opposition.

Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, was at the white house Monday morning on business of interest to the state.

Messrs. A. C. Avery and H. S. Bradley, both of North Carolina, were in the city yesterday. The former is registered at the Metropolitan, and the latter at the St. James.

The president will probably withdraw the name of Mayo, recently nominated to be postmaster at Littleton. He is charged with a number of grave offences against society, and the nomination is said to be the worst made in North Carolina. Both Senators Pritchard and Butler for once have joined in opposing confirmation.

Stopped It.

The noise caused by moving feet-people coming in and going out—in the court house yesterday, was such that Judge Bryan raised a wee little kick and Sheriff Gilmer and Ex-Sheriff Cook, who is assisting him, put their heads together to get a scheme to stop the noise. They succeeded and when court opened this morning every aisle in the room was heavily and substantially carpeted; and things are now quiet in court.

Both Commissions Are Guarded by Heavy Escorts—News More Sensational Than Satisfactory.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, Feb. 21—Our losses in yesterday's fight are Privates Adams and Rinehart, of the First Washington regiment, and two Californians were wounded. Fully fifty Filipinos were killed. Twenty-three of the dead were buried by our men. Private Cassidy, of West Calif., was killed by a Filipino sharpshooter while scouting this morning. The transport Newport has arrived from Iloilo and brought the news that Gen. Miller still holds Jaro Maro. There were some skirmishes during the night. Two thousand insurgents are armed at Santa Barbara

FRENCH-BRAZIL BOUNDARY.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 21—Advices from Guiana say that the joint commission appointed to inquire into the boundary question between France and Brazil has just been heard from on Connait river. The news is more sensational than satisfactory. The colonial government is doing its best to suppress the facts that both the French and Brazilian commissions went out guarded under heavy escorts. Now comes the news of Cayenne collision. These forces are in the wilds of the interior and the governor immediately despatched reinforcements to the number of 200 troops without waiting to communicate with Paris.

Offered Allegiance.

By Cable to the Telegram.

Manila, Feb. 21—A deputation of representatives of natives of Negroes Island, called on General Miller after the capture of Iloilo and offered the allegiance of the Islanders to the United States.

Another dispatch from Manila at 3:40 p. m. today says: The stars and stripes were voluntarily raised over Negroes Islands after the capture of Iloilo. Four native commissioners arrived here today to offer their allegiance.

MY UNCLE FROM JAPAN.

The Opening Bill of the Murray-Hart Company.

The Murray-Hart Company opened a week's engagement at the academy of music last night, presenting "My Uncle from Japan," to a full house. Every member of the company is a stranger here, though, last night they made a good impression, Misses Hart and McCullough and Mr. Murray especially. Mr. Howard Legner, as the cheerful liar, is a very good actor, but is lacking facial expression. He will play a good part in which the face is not called upon to say so much.

Jack Murray is an ideal negro comedian, but his lecture last night did not take well. It is hoped that he will appear again in something better suited to the taste of his audience.

The company altogether is a good one, and will no doubt, as all companies do, improve on acquaintance. Tonight, "A Woman Hater," will be presented. It is said to be a good play, brim-full of comedy.

For Injury to Dr. Hoge.

Suit for $10,000 has been instituted in the city court by the executors of the late Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge against the Richmond Railway and Electric Co. This suit is on account of the death of Dr. Hoge from injuries received on the afternoon of Friday, November 4. Dr. Hoge was injured internally and badly bruised, besides having two ribs broken. The shock, too, was very severe. He never recovered from the effects of the accident.—Richmond Telegram.

HAS PASSED THE SENATE.

The Greensboro Dispensary Bill—Wilson Made a Fine Speech.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Raleigh, Feb. 21—The Greensboro dispensary bill was passed by the senate today after a hard fight. Senator Wilson made a fine speech in support of the bill.

The above dispatch is from Hon. A. M. Scales and he adds:

"Bring a hundred men tomorrow by all means."

We will say just here that it is highly important for all friends of the dispensary who can possibly do so to go down to Raleigh and appear before the house committee. At least one hundred men are wanted. Nearly that number have already agreed to go.

It was at first thought a special train could be procured but this cannot be done. The best arrangement that could be made is a special round trip fare of $2.85. Let all who can go be at the Southern depot in time for the 8:10 train tomorrow morning.

ANOTHER DESPATH.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Raleigh, Feb. 21—Tremendous lobbying against the Greensboro dispensary bill, but the people win. Senators Wilson, Glenn and Justice made great speeches. Desperate measures will be used in the house.

MR. SCALES WIRES FURTHER.

"The opposition is moving heaven and earth. The strongest lobby employed I have ever seen."

Freemen of Greensboro, will the voice of the people be heard and respected or ignored?

A Light Vote.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21—The election is quiet and the vote is light. It is conceded that Ashbridge will be chosen mayor and Kinsy city solicitor by a large plurality.

THE STATE NORMAL.

Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the State Normal and Industrial College, is now in Raleigh to urge upon the legislature the necessities of the institution. Every broad-minded and liberal friend of education will hope that he may be successful in his efforts to secure what is necessary to extend and enlarge the usefulness of the institution. The Normal has a work entirely its own, a work which no other institution has undertaken. Its success has been nothing short of phenomenal. Anent this matter we find the following in Webster's Weekly:

"We see that the legislative committee appointed to visit the State Normal and Industrial College has performed its work. We don't know whether President McIver will ask for an increased appropriation or not, but if he does he should be given all he wants. The state could better afford to have every male college within its borders closed than the Normal and Industrial College. Every dollar put into a woman's education will be multiplied a thousand fold, for it is as natural for a woman to give out what she has received as it is for the flowers to bloom and the birds to sing."

Candor compels us to disagree with the extravagant statement that "the state could better afford to have every male college within its borders closed than the Normal and Industrial College." Yet we would not minimize or question the great good the institution is doing, has done, and will do in the future in the educational development of the young womanhood of the state. The Normal opens an avenue to them which no other college has ever opened.

An increased appropriation for the pressing and practical needs of this institution will not be regarded as an increased expense, for, as the Weekly truly says, every dollar put into a woman's education will be multiplied a thousand fold. Greensboro takes pride and should take greater pride in the State Normal and Industrial College and the community should lend its influence and throw its energy to any move that has for its object the better equipment of the institution.

It is stated in a despatch received here that the democratic caucus last night refused to interfere in the matter of the establishment of a dispensary for Greensboro. This the people of Greensboro, who favor the dispensary, regard as right. The people have spoken. The measure is a purely local one, and the democrats who compose the large majority of the legislators, recognize the fact that the people of a community ought to be allowed to settle local matters for themselves.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Hitchcock Takes The Oath.

Washington, Feb. 20—Hitchcock today took the oath and entered into the duties of Secretary of the Interior.

Their Own Fault.

The advocates of the dispensary had no trouble in winning out in the primary at Greensboro, the other side refusing to take part in it, preferring to make their fight before the legislature. Guilford's representatives did the right thing in allowing the people of that city to thus express themselves on the matter, and if the antis are defeated it is their own fault.—Durham Herald.

Word comes to New York that Madame Duse will visit America next autumn for a six months tour.

Not one child dies where ten formerly died from croup. People have learned the value of One Minute Cough Cure and use it for severe lung and throat troubles. It immediately stops coughing. It never fails. Howard Gardner.

REPORTED FAVORABLY AGAIN.

The Senate Judiciary Committee's Action Yesterday.

The Morning Post says: The senate judiciary committee heard argument yesterday afternoon on the legality of the Greensboro dispensary bill. Ex-Judge MacRae and Hon. E. W. Pou appeared against the dispensary, and Messrs. Geo. F. Bason, of Charlotte, and R. O. Burton for it. The contention of Judge MacRae and Mr. Pou was, first, that the dispensary act being a private act the law required thirty days' notice; second, that being a local prohibitory act the law required thirty days' notice.

Senator Wilson stated that notice of the amendment to the charter had been duly given, and the dispensary bill did make amendments to the charter, though he said the bill in question being of a public nature did not require any notice at all.

Mr. Bason argued that this was not in ordinary sense a private act but a public local act, that instead of being a local prohibition act it especially provided for the sale of liquors.

Mr. R. O. Burton read several decisions of the supreme court bearing upon the question and going to show that the act contemplated was of a public nature.

Senator Osborne, of the committee, said when it had been shown by Senator Wilson that the notice of application being made to amend the charter had been published, he thought it fitted the case. The bill was an amendment of the charter.

The committee then voted unanimously to report the bill favorably.

The Ungainly Russian Sailor.

A real sailorman has fingers bent up like fishhooks from the lifelong habit of gripping things. The Russian sailor carries his hands like a soldier and cannot possibly be "handy." A sailor's gait ashore has a slight roll. This arises from the need at sea of keeping up the windward side of a rolling ship. And the rolling gait marks one of a sailor's finest qualities—balance. Unless the body balances and poises to meet every motion of a ship the result is seasickness.

Now, the Russian bluejacket does not roll in his gait ashore, but marches. Neither has he any sense of balancing at sea and seasickness in the Russian fleet is a source of actual weakness and danger. The Black sea squadron can only put to sea in the three calmest months of the summer, and the so called maneuvers take place ashore on the Kenai peninsula, consisting mainly of battalion drill.

One more trait of the real sailor is his self reliance, which makes him fit for facing emergencies single handed. But the Russian bluejacket has none of this. He is not a machine in himself, but only a little bit of a machine which cannot work without the other bits. He is huge in stature—a giant compared with our men—but in his winter overcoat it is impossible to distinguish him from a soldier. Unhandy, seasick and reliant only in drill discipline, he is utterly unfit for active service.—London Answers.

Silent Brides.

In Korea during the whole of the marriage day the bride must be as mute as a statue. If she says a word, or even makes a sign, she becomes an object of ridicule, and her silence must remain unbroken, even in her own room, though her husband should attempt to break it by taunts, jeers or coaxing, for the female servants are all on the watch for such a breach of etiquette as speech, hanging about the doors and chinks to catch up and repeat even a single utterance, which would cause her to lose caste forever in her circle.

This custom of silence is observed with the greatest rigidity among the higher classes. It may be a week or several months before the husband knows the sound of his wife's voice, and even after that for a length of time she only opens her mouth for necessary speech. With the father-in-law the custom of silence is still more rigid, and the daughter-in-law often passes years without raising her eyes to his or addressing a word to him. In Bulgaria a month's silence is imposed on brides unless specially addressed by the husband.

Wanted Her Money's Worth.

Bridget Rafferty had served the best years of her life as a cook, and now that she was "wearin awa'" and an operation became necessary she haughtily declined to go to a ward, but took one of the best rooms in the hospital. The operation was successful, but the patient was allowed very little food. During her convalescence she made frequent use of the electric bell at her bed. The nurse would fly to her, to be greeted with some trifling question or the remark, "I only wanted to know if you were there."

As such frequent use of her bell suggested to the matron on that floor that the nurse was neglecting her patient, the nurse remonstrated, and received the following unique explanation:

"Well, you see, miss, here I am paying $30 a week, and I'm not seeing anything, I'm not hearing anything, and, miss, I'm not eating anything. So I just ring the bell to get my money's worth, and, anyways, I enjoy hearing it ring."—San Francisco Argonaut.

No Diamonds For Her.

Here is a story from The Bookman, told by Rudyard Kipling. His father, John Kipling, went to pay a visit to an Indian rajah who was about to bring home a queen. The elder Kipling had been engaged in the decorations of the palace, and its owner showed him the gifts of stuffs and perfumes he had procured for his coming spouse. The rajah also sent for his jewel caskets and asked Mr. Kipling to assist him in selecting the gems to be included in the marriage gifts. They were of extraordinary size and value, such gems as are seldom seen except in the east, and to the artist the selection was a pleasure. Finally he lifted a wonderful diamond, one of the choicest gems in the collection, and said: "You should send this. No woman could resist it." The rajah looked up, caught it and held it jealously to his breast, then, slowly replacing it in the casket, answered, "Nay, such gems be not for women."

Ordinance.

The following ordinance was passed by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting on Friday, February 10, 1898:

An ordinance prohibiting certain persons from being on the streets, alleys and public places in the city of Greensboro after certain hours, providing penalties for its violation.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro, N. C., Guilford county, that it be and it is hereby made unlawful for any person under sixteen years of age to be or remain in or upon any of the streets, alleys or public places of the city of Greensboro at night after the hour of 9 p. m. from May 1st to October 1st each year, and 8 o'clock p. m. at all other times, unless such person is accompanied by a parent, guardian or other person having the legal custody of such minor, or is in the performance of an errand or duty directed by such parents, guardian or other person having the legal custody of such minor person, or whose employment makes it necessary to be upon said streets, alleys or public places during the night time after such specified hours.

Sec. 2. It is hereby made unlawful for any parent, guardian or other person having the legal care and custody of any person under sixteen years of age to allow, suffer or permit any such child, ward or other person under said age, while in such legal custody, to go or to be in or on any of the streets, alleys or public places in said city after 9 p. m. between May 1st and October 1st, and 8 o'clock p. m. at all other times, unless there exists a reasonable necessity therefor, or unless accompanied by such parent, guardian or other person entitled to the custody of said child.

Sec. 3. Each member of the police force of said city, while on duty, is authorized to arrest without warrant, any person violating the provisions of section 1 of this ordinance, and when such arrest shall be made it is hereby made the duty of said police officer to require the appearance of such person before the mayor of said city on the day following such arrest for trial, and upon conviction the mayor shall administer a reprimand to such offender for the first offense, and for a second or subsequent offense such person shall be liable to a fine not to exceed ten dollars. Provided, that no person not previously convicted of having violated this ordinance shall be detained in jail or otherwise confined before trial, but the officer making such arrest shall see that the person so arrested is immediately conducted to his or her home, and shall notify the parent, guardian or other such person having legal custody of such minor of said arrest; and, provided further, that any person who shall violate section 2 of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof by the mayor for said city, be fined in any sum not exceeding ten dollars. This ordinance to be in effect at once after ratification.

By Order of board of aldermen

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wabash ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Beats The Klonkike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemmorhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

State of Texas Raised.

Norfolk, Feb. 20 - The merchants and miners' steamship "State of Texas" which was sunk in Chesapeake Bay in collision with ice floes, has been raised and brought into port.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles, Insist vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

Societies of the sons of the revolution and the American revolution held a mass-meeting in Washington, D. C., last night, in aid of the Lafayette statue.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2 20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9 50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 1' o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

Of Interest to Parents

The little child of George White came near burning to death Saturday night. She was standing in front of the fire when her cotton dress ignited, and but for the quick heroic action of her mother, would have burned to death. Mrs. White had her hands severely burned in putting out the clothing of her little one.—Durham Special to Raleigh Morning Post, Jan. 31.

Cooking Down South.

A thoughtful Virginian of mature years undertook yesterday to explain to me why southern people living in the north revert so often to the old fashioned cooking: "The beauty of the southern family dinner lay in the seasoning of the food to suit the taste of all the members of the household, individually and collectively. Old Aunt Dinah, or Aunt Sarah, or Aunt Chloe, the cook, knew exactly from years of practice what each of the children liked, what the father submitted to and what the mistress demanded, and she could please all.

"Take, for example, a rice pudding, one of the familiar stand bys. In the mixing of the ingredients Aunt Chloe would mutter to herself: 'Mars Willie 'e like plenty o' cinnamon. I'll jes put in 'nother little piece o' cinnamon for Mars Willie. Miss Tavy she like allspice. I'll jet put in a little mo' allspice for Miss Tavy. Mars Habersham 'e like plenty o' cloves. I must please Mars Habby wid a little mo' cloves. Miss Julia she fond o' nutmeg. Dar's a little mo' nutmeg for Miss Julia. Marster 'e all right if dey's plenty o' rice, an ole missus eat all de egg an milk. Dey all fond o' reesins, an dey all likes sugar plenty; so dar dey goes an de puddin's ready for de uben.'

"She has been stirring all the time for dear life, and, having looked out for each member of the family, the dish is bound to be a success."—New York Press.

The Woman of It.

The Philadelphia Record says: "Almost the first thing a visitor does upon entering the room in which the Declaration of Independence was signed is to add his autograph to the vast collection of more than 20 years. The custodian of the book a few days ago, in speaking of his experience, said: 'You wouldn't believe it, but we have had only two attempts to mutilate the register or to write anything in it except names and addresses, and on both of those occasions the culprits were women.

"'There's another strange thing about the visitors,' he continued. 'Of the thousands who come here the only ones we have any trouble with are the women. We have a tape stretched across all those chairs,' he said, as he pointed to a long line of 'seats of the mighty,' as it were—chairs of the signers—'to prevent people from sitting in them. Well, one woman only yesterday wanted us to cut the tape for her, because she claimed she was a descendant of one of the signers and thought she had a right to sit in his chair, and she went away mad when we wouldn't make an exception in her case.'"

Old and New.

An English newspaper contains an interesting parallel, discovered by a classical scholar. First comes a translation from the original Greek of Antipater of Thessalonica:

Once upon a time, when a ship was shattered at sea, two men fell at strife, fighting for one plank. Antagoras struck away Pisistratus. One could not blame him; it was for his life. But justice took cognizance. The other swam ashore; but him (Antagoras) a dogfish seized. Surely, the avenger of the fates rests not, even in the watery deep.

Then an incident recorded in the London Chronicle serves to translate the story into a modern event and to show how life repeats itself:

Two bluejackets, named Friday and Painter, were capsized from a boat at Weymouth. After a struggle to get into the waterlogged boat Friday beat his comrade off, and Painter swam ashore. Friday got into the boat and was drowned.

His Mustard Plaster.

The mustard plaster is a harmless looking wafer, but it must be handled with as much circumspection as a woman. There was a newly married man once whose wife told him to put on a mustard plaster to cure a cold. He had faith in her, and put it on. Then he went to sleep, being gifted with the power of sleeping under torments which is not given to one man in a thousand. The plaster seemed to him somewhat unreasonably hot, but he argued that the hotter it was the better. Besides, he had confidence in his wife. Next day he found a well developed blister on his chest, and his wife only laughed and said she had supposed any one would have sense enough to take off a plaster when it hurt him. Though that was 11 months ago, the mark of the plaster is still upon the man like a brand, and he now regards his wife's remedies with suspicion.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Married by Blood.

In the island of Banquey there is a tribe of Dusuns differing widely in language, religion and customs from other tribes bearing that name. Marriages are performed in the forest in the presence of two families. There is no public gathering or feast.

The rite consists in transferring a drop of blood from a wooden knife in the calf of the man's leg to a similar cut in the woman's leg. After marriage the man takes the bride to her home, where he resides in future as a member of the family.

Whimsical Advertisements.

The author of "Pages From a Private Diary" gives some whimsical advertisements, as, for instance: "Respectable girls, about 18, wanted for bottling."

And from a bookseller's catalogue: "Clergymen.—A fine collection of 200 clergymen, consisting of Protestant ministers, Roman Catholics, Wesleyan Methodists, Unitarians and Presbyterians, nice clean lot—5 shillings."

A Valid Excuse.

"Please excuse William from school today," wrote the boy's mother to the teacher, "as he sat up late last night studying his lessons and is too sleepy to come today." — Philadelphia North American.

NORTH CAROLINA, GUILFORD COUNTY.

By virtue of the powers conferred upon me in a certain order made by the Superior Court of Guilford county in a cause therein pending, entitled Mrs Nellie Albright, et al., ex parte, I will, as commissioner, sell at the court house door in Greensboro on the first Monday in March, (it being the sixth day) to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, the following described land and premises, to-wit:

A house and lot on Cedar street, in the city of Greensboro and fronting on said street 62½ feet and running back about 200 feet and adjoining the lands of T. M. Pickard on the north, Bob Aiken on the south, J. W. Richardson on the west, and others, containing one-half of one acre, more or less. Upon which is situated a nice five room cottage, good well and a barn. It being the home place of Joe Albright, deceased.

This 28th day of January, 1899.

A. L. BROOKS, Commissioner.

POPULAR PROVERBS.

SOME THAT ARE FAIRLY BRIMFUL OF ABSURDITY.

Maxims Often Quoted and at Times Advanced as Argument Which Have Neither Wit Nor Wisdom to Commend Them—Contradictory Sayings.

There is a mistaken notion abroad, says a writer in London Tit-Bits, that proverbs are epitomes of wisdom, the concentrated experience of generations, and that to quote one of them in a discussion is to advance an unanswerable argument. And yet what is there to recommend many of them beyond their jingle? Take our familiar friend:

Early to Bed and Early to Rise, Makes a Man Healthy, Wealthy and Wise.—Obviously, the main idea was to find a word to rhyme with "rise," and "wise" was the unfortunate word chosen. And now, trustful little boys are persuaded to go to bed at unreasonably early hours in the hope of becoming a sort of Sandow-Rothschild-Solomon, though we all know milkmen and market gardeners who get up at 5 a. m. and are neither rich nor clever, and members of parliament who go to bed late and are, if not clever, at least not poor and infirm. Since the invention of gas and electric light this ridiculous old proverb has outlived its original modicum of truth, and proves we must not venerate proverbs on account of their hoary antiquity.

The Early Bird Catches the Worm.—The mistake made here is that it assumes we are all birds. But some of us are worms. If we were not, what would become of the birds? And, therefore, while the birds do well to be early, let the worms be late—the later the better.

The Pitcher That Goes Oft to the Well Is Broken at Last.—Note, it does not say "is broken first," but "is broken at last." Of course, every pitcher, whether it goes to the well or stays on the shelf, is broken at last, and the only result of this absurd proverb is to encourage lazy folk to do as little work as possible and unnecessarily keep out of harm's way.

If You Want a Thing Well Done, Do It Yourself.—There's shocking bad advice with which to start a youth on life's journey. If he wants a button well sewed on, he's to do it himself; if he wants his hair well cut, he's to cut it himself. He must mend his own chairs, shoe his own nag, darn his own socks. In short, from buying a horse to blacking his boots, he must do it himself. Poor fellow!

A Contented Mind Is a Continual Feast.—Can any one say what that means? Does it mean that the owner continually feasts on his contented mind or that the contented mind is continually feasting? Probably the latter, as we sometimes hear that "a hungry man's an angry man," and we all know that a satisfied appetite is the source of contentment. Hence it is not the contented mind which makes the feast, as the silly proverb implies, but the continual feast which produces the contented mind.

There's No Rule Without an Exception.—This is not only a proverb; it is also a rule. But obviously there is no exception to this rule, because if there were a rule with an exception this proberb would be untrue. But the proverb is a rule which has no exception, which, as Mr. Euclid would say, is absurd. Which was to be shown.

Where Ignorance Is Bliss, 'Tis Folly to Be Wise.—For oracular stupidity this proverb may be classed with the one about the pitcher. Granting it true, the difficulty is to know where ignorance is bliss and of course the proverb gives no assistance where it is most needed. Most people quote it as "ignorance is bliss," in their blissful ignorance, but if a proverb gives rise to error it is not only absurd; it is also dangerous. When people say—

A Little Learning Is a Dangerous Thing—They make that a reason not for learning more, but for learning less.

Love Me, Love My Dog.—If I go a-courting, and my ladylove bids me love her scented, dyspeptic poodle, which is not necessary to her health and comfort, must I not much more love her glass eye and false teeth and hair, which are? Yet common sense revolts at the notion, and I therefore assume that a proverb which, logically treated, makes such unreasonable demands on my affections is wrong and absurd.

Seeing Is Believing.—How can any reflecting person repeat these words? For very often we believe we see what really we do not. If a conjurer were to take this proverb as his motto, every one would see its absurdity. A straight stick half submerged in water looks crooked. Fortunately, another proverb says, "Trust not to appearances." And this bring us to the exquisite absurdity of popular proverbs which run in contradictory pairs and support both sides of an argument. Thus one proverb says, "Look before you leap;" another, "Who hesitates is lost." Sometimes we hear that "Second thoughts are best;" at other times that "Delays are dangerous." The desperate man relies on "Nothing venture, nothing have;" the cautious man on "Never venture out of your depth till you can swim." The impatient matrimonial candidate believes that "Happy's the wooing that's not long a-doing;" the tardy one that one may "Marry in haste and repent at leisure." And so on ad infinitum. "Absence makes the heart grow fonder"—"Out of sight, out of mind," "It's never too late to mend"—"A fool at 40 will never be wise." "Too many cooks spoil the broth"—"There's safety in numbers" and "Two heads are better than one."

Therefore, let us examine our proverbial coinage before we pass it into the moral currency.

The wonderful things came to pass at the Lenox Lyceum and the crowds have been both large and devoted to Dan's pink coat.

A Randolph Boy Writes to Friends in Greensboro.

Mr. Walter R. Marley, a Randolph county boy, who at one time was a clerk in the big china store of E. M. Caldcleugh & Bro., is now a member of the First N. C. regiment, in camp about nine miles from Havana, Cuba The Messrs. Caldcleugh have just received a letter from Mr. Marley, from which we are permitted to make the following extract.

"I have been to the city (Havana) twice since we have been on the Island. I was down at the flag raising at Morro Castle and on a wood detail last Sunday; but I was not allowed to get off the wagon on the wood detail, or to fall out of ranks down at the flag raising. I saw, as we were going through town last Sunday, a very pretty china store. Wood sells for $14.00 a cord, flour for thirty-five cents a pound, western bacon for the same, chickens from one to two dollars apiece. How is that for prices?"
